

TXOKO
INGLES

SPELLING

Correct the spelling mistakes in the following sentences:

1. After a life-long career in the army he reached the rank of coronel.
2. Do you have satelite TV in your apartament?
3. Jack's just come up from the dive; he's in the discompresion chamber at the moment.
4. The orchestra's performance was a catastrofe.
5. There were some interesting paralels between the two assesinations.
6. What's the difference between alligators and cocodriles?
7. They're looking for acomodation in the city centre.
8. The governamental advisor took responsability for the fiasco and resigned.
9. That behaviour is not appropriate in a cementery.
10. It would be preferible if you asked the propietor yourself.
11. That only goes to demostrate how desesperate the resistance movement has become.
12. I wrote a despassionate letter to the government against their policy of desmobilisation.

The answers will be uploaded next Friday